President's Message

TIMCL. In Internet language these letters would mean (in MY vocabulary) This Is Me Crying – Loudly. I am already missing John and Shirlee Fisher, and they haven't even actually left the state yet. I want to add my personal thanks to those of Hazel, Dan, and the SVGS; each of them has been invaluable to me - in many different ways. Thank you, Fishers, for all of your contributions with expertise, time, money, talent, knowledge and your smiling faces. I adore each of you!

You have a wonderful opportunity to attend several events sponsored by SVGS in October, but better than that you have a chance to introduce your family and friends to genealogy – either by bringing them to the seminar or the family heritage festival or by coming to the spaghetti dinner. These events will be tremendously fun, and the proceeds will benefit our publication of "Skagit County and Its Pioneers: 150 Years of Rich History and Heritage". Don't forget to submit information about your family for this soon-to-be published book. Your monetary donation toward that cause will be gratefully accepted, as well. Huge kudos to Hazel Rasar and Diane Partington for all of the time, talent, money and energy they have put into these events. Thanks also to the largest group of volunteers I have seen assembled; they are doing great things and shall be named later AND go down in infamy.

A public thank-you to the Pioneer Association (and Skagit County Museum) for allowing us to participate in their wonderful picnic; it was great to meet so many of the pioneer family members and let them know about the work we do in the area.

Our illustrious past secretary, Iona Raney, has taken over as our education chairperson. She will be in charge of the education tables at the family heritage festival and is planning a series of winter classes, as well as field trips. Yahoo – a person filled with knowledge and enthusiasm to get us on the move. Thanks, Iona.

Maureen Royal is our fund-raising volunteer and has many events in the planning stages, as well as educating herself on other possible money means, such as grants. Welcome aboard, Maureen, and thanks for being willing to take on this task!

We must bid farewell to another board member, Edna Bainter, who does our publicity. Her health is necessitating that she not help us any longer. Should you be willing to send notices to the newspapers about our meetings we would love to have you join the board in that capacity. We'd love to have you!

Hope you had a great summer, a good family reunion, and learned many new things. Hugs & smiles,

Laura

POTLUCK DINNER

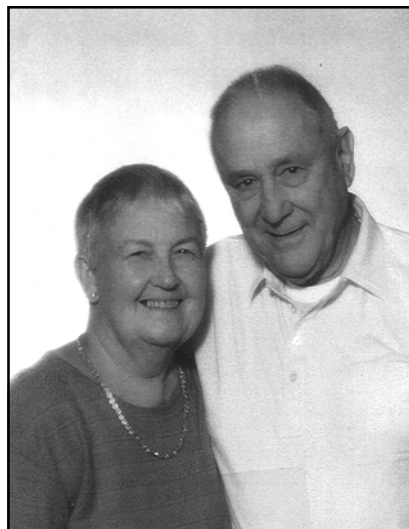

Bring your favorite dish and join us for our annual Potluck before the general meeting.

We will provide the drinks, you will need to bring your serving dishes, i.e.: plate, silverware, etc

Look forward to seeing you there!

September 2004—January 2005

General Meeting:

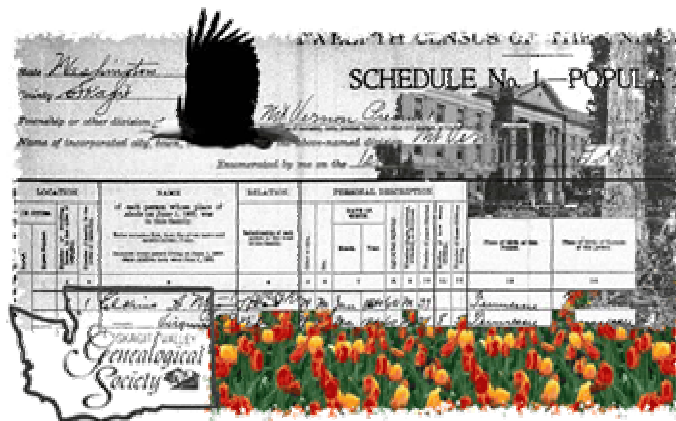

Sep 28 Pot Luck Dinner at 6:00 p.m.

Darlene Hamilton, chief genealogy librarian at the Seattle Public Library, will describe their new facility and discuss how we could use it to our advantage. Iona may arrange a follow up field trip.

Oct 26 Pat Doran from the Skagit County Historical Museum in La Conner will make a presentation called "Topping It Off". It will cover early hat styles and trends with many actual hats on display from this era.

Nov 23 A "Show and Tell" program will be presented by some of our members who have constructed a genealogy related project of interest to the group.

Jan 25 Heidi Thomas, a local writing instructor, will provide an introduction and overview of her "Memoir Writing Course". This may be the push we need for some of us to

Good-Bye to John and Shirlee Fisher

By Hazel Rasar

I met both John and Shirlee when I first joined the society for a year in 1988-1989. However, I really became acquainted with and got to know them in the spring of 1994 when all of us went to Salt Lake. We have become good friends and they have worked hard to keep busy with lots of projects, in which they willingly took on added responsibility.

They moved to Skagit County from Cougar Mountain in 1987 and settled in Anacortes. They joined our Genealogical Society in 1988. They have been dedicated and serving members since that time and were honored in 1994 "for outstanding contributions, dedication and effort in the organization of our Garage Sales" and were bestowed with the first lifetime memberships ever given by this society.

I remember, in Salt Lake City, having several morning discussions over breakfast with John and Shirlee about using a computer. I recall the time when John indicated that he would NEVER use a computer. I have been able to prove him wrong in that respect and John has progressed to the point he is now using his computer every day, and not only has he completed his memoirs for his children, he is also in the process of writing a book using his genealogical information about his ancestors. He uses email daily to communicate with other people.

In the absence of volunteers for several of the society jobs, they have volunteered, not always willingly, but with persuasion, to fill in until we were able to find replacements. I can remember the day they showed up at my house, we were going to put together a newsletter, as our newsletter editor had resigned. Shirlee was working very hard trying to find small articles to fill the newsletter, and indicating that we would have a lot of pasting to do, to get it all done. We sat down at the computer, did some manipulating and we got that newsletter done in relatively little time. They were both amazed at what could be accomplished on the computer.

During 1989 they gave us a program on their extensive tour through Europe and the various research facilities they had visited. Below you will see listed a few of the accomplishments they have achieved during their 16 year membership in SVGS.

JOHN ROYSTON FISHER

Born, raised and educated in the Los Angeles, California area.

In the spring of 1989 John became the chairperson of our Pickle Barn garage sales, a position he held for 7 years; he volunteered to serve and was elected as our 3rd Vice President for Ways & Means. In 1990 – John chaired and managed the societies garage sale held at I-5 Auto World and yearly after that until 1995. We credit John with great fundraising enterprises and his ventures have added greatly to our financial viability.

In 1992 John took on the job of projects chair. In that capacity he organized a work group of 46 people, and took on the responsibility of coordinating the Funeral Home Index project. That project consisted of photocopying more than 44,000 funeral home records, and doing in-depth research into the history of each individual funeral home in Skagit County. He coordinated the transfer of all of those records to Salt Lake City where the LDS Family History Library, microfilmed the records and made them available for research.

In 1994 John took on the responsibility for Ways and Means until that position was filled.

John served as president of this society from 1998-2000 and again in the year 2001 when as past president he was asked by the Board of Directors to resume that position when our elected president resigned.

He continued to work projects during and after his presidency, until their decision to move.

In 1995 he assisted Shirlee in setting up the traveling library.

As project chairperson he has organized and coordinated the reading of ten (10) of the 15 major cemeteries in Skagit County. Several other cemeteries are in process and John has coordinated the reading of those cemeteries as well as researching the history of each cemetery. He has been involved in the research of records for the Northern State Hospital cemetery and all of the cemeteries for different native American tribes. He has found several cemeteries located throughout the county that have anywhere from 1-10 burials. Many of them are overgrown and almost lost.

On his own, as another fundraising idea, he contacted Don Tate in Texas and made arrangements to obtain and sell the beautiful ancestor charts that many of us have purchased.

SHIRLEE WEYER FISHER

Born, raised and educated in the Wenatchee area of Eastern Washington.

Shirlee assisted with the publication and proofreading of "The Pioneer Book" the first book published by the society in 1989-1990. In 1990 she became our Newsletter Editor, serving in that capacity for several years.

For awhile, our society had active participation in special interest groups and Shirlee became a leader and contact person for the European Interest Group

She also served as Program chairperson, and served as Vice President. She assumed the Presidency when Julie Steves moved to Enumclaw.

In 1992, she was elected as President of the society. As her term of president ended, she again volunteered to take on the job of newsletter editor which she retained for many years.

She helped with the development of the Traveling Library. Recently she has been keeper of the Traveling Library and has contacted many of you when she was unable to locate pieces of that library.

She has been our obituary archives person, collecting, and pasting over 100 obituaries a month for the past three or four years.

She has been an active participant in the publication of our newsletter for several years as one of the volunteers who has proofread that publication.

2004 Pioneer Picnic

This years annual Pioneer Picnic was held at Pioneer Park in LaConnor the 5th of August. Held by the Skagit County Pioneer Association since 1904, this year marked the 100th anniversary. A great deal of the funds raised by the picnic are donated to the Skagit County Historical Museum.

Honored as "Pioneer Family of the Year" was the Janicki Family of Sedro Woolley, who first arrived in Skagit County from Chicago in 1920. Janicki Logging, then Janicki Industries have been around since the early days of logging.

Also honored, as this years Pioneer Contributors was the Wood family of Skagit Valley Herald fame. The family has owned the local paper for 40 years and been major supporters of the community. In the last several years they've also published two books on Skagit County history.

The Skagit Valley Genealogical Society would like to thank the Pioneer Association for allowing us to have a display table to promote genealogy and the ongoing special history project. The society was represented by eight of Special Project committee members.

Ancestry and ProQuest Team Up

The consolidation of the world of genealogy databases continues with the announcement that long-time rivals Ancestry and ProQuest would be putting aside their differences to form a business partnership.

Under the terms of the new agreement, the two large vendors have agreed that ProQuest will begin selling Ancestry products to its established library market under the name of Ancestry Library Edition, while Ancestry will begin vending ProQuest's 20,000+ genealogy and local history books through its popular website.

Key collections in the new Ancestry Library Edition will include Ancestry's Immigration Collection; The Data Collection including US Birth, Marriage and Death Collection; the US Census Collection including 1790 to 1930 censuses and indexes. Also included will be the UK and Ireland Collection including England & Wales Census images and indexes, Civil Registration Index 1837 to present, and England, Scotland, Ireland, and Wales parish and probate records from the 1500s to 1837. The collection may be in a library near you soon. Reprinted from September/October 2004 Family Chronicle Magazine

Shake Up At Everton's Magazine

One of the oldest companies in the genealogy business is undergoing large scale reorganization. The company responsible for the publication currently known as Everton's Family History Magazine will no longer be published under that title. The company has donated its assets, including its large library, to the city of Logan, Utah.

These assets include a very substantial genealogical library, the very popular Handybook for Genealogists, the online Everton's Family History Network and their 57-year-old genealogy magazine. It appears that the magazine may reappear under its older title, Everton's Genealogical Helper. Extracted from September/October 2004 issue

A summer of Family Reunions in Skagit

By Dan Royal

Skagit County felt like it went through a record breaking heat wave this summer, but that didn't seem to stop family reunions from happening. That pleases me as a family historian- for my own upcoming family reunion is coming up shortly this month- but also for the family's who have their own unique history in Skagit County.

Two reunions the Skagit Valley Genealogical Society were able to attend and act as their family photographer for the day were the Atterberry/Atterbury and Morgan Family's.

The Atterberry/Atterbury Family Reunion is an annual event-held July 10th at Friday Creek Lodge this year. One of their earliest recorded family reunions was in 1929. A very nice size group photo from that reunion was prominent with other family photos. A couple of senior members of the family attending this reunion were children in 1929 photo.

The 1930 U.S. Federal Census for Skagit County show the George & Bessie Atterbury family in Sedro Woolley at the time with sons Robert, Woodman, Carlisle (who only passed away this December past) and Kenneth. George and other family members appear to have come out to Skagit from the state of Missouri.

Elaine Atterbury Anderson and Todd Zersen were responsible for running things and the society would like to thank them for their donation to the special history book project.

The Morgan Family Reunion was held at Clarks Cabins in Marblemount and put together by Patty Cole. Rueben and Maud Morgan came to Skagit County in the first decade of the 20th century. Rueben is said to have had an early sawmill in Burlington. His son Walter built a home in Marblemount by 1937 and their children traveled by bus to Concrete High School. Joan Morgan Carpenter, CHS class of 1954, was a great source of information and I appreciated her time and humor. Thank you to Patty for the donation to the society for the special history project.

Special History Project

Reunions attended by Society members included the Rasar Family Annual Reunion in July at Rasar State Park. Bayview Community Summer picnic was attended by Jim Mowrer in August, and the Thomson and Howard Families Reunion held at Washington Park, also in August, in Anacortes and attended by Tom Robinson. Dan Royal attended both the Atterbury family reunion and the Morgan family reunion.

Thank You to all of our volunteers for their summer

Resignation

Due to medical problems Edna Bainter has had to offer her resignation as Publicity Chair. We will miss you Edna , and we THANK YOU for the job you have done on behalf of the society. You have religiously notified newspapers of our existence and the time and location of our meetings.

Website

<http://www.rootsweb.com/~wasvgs>

There have been some changes to the website over the summer months with the addition of information on our upcoming events. Take a look and let me know what you think.

Affiliate Program

You can help the Society by buying your favorite genealogical magazine, CD or book from the societies website through an affiliate program with the publishers. Simply click on the link below to the magazine or website of your choice, pay for whatever you are interested in and the society will receive a small commission for your doing so. A simple way to help contribute to Skagit Valley Genealogical Society and their ongoing works.

Joan the Librarian

There have been many visitors to our library this summer according to the sign-in sheet. Others come to use the facility but do not notice the sign-in sheet I am sure. When I am there doing library work visitors are encouraged to take our brochure and also sign in. Thank you to all the volunteers that have served on Monday, June through August: Joyce, Lois, Hazel, Pat, Diane, Colleen, Vonda, Solveig, Linda and Jim.

Work goes forward with the complete listing of the books belonging to the Society, located in the Burlington Public Library. I anticipate this will be completed by the end of September. A printed list will be available to members. Also, I am working on a CD that can be accessed on the SVGS website.

This past summer has been busy for me doing genealogy. The Washington State Genealogy Conference in Kirkland in June was attended by your librarian and I found it very worthwhile. A syllabus of the proceedings will be found in the library in the second drawer of the vertical file, in the Washington State category. On Saturday, August 7, I attended the Whatcom County Genealogical Society Conference with Leland Meitzler, editor of the Heritage Quest Magazine, as the featured speaker. This was my lucky day for I was the winner of one of the drawings - The Census Book by William Dollarhide. This book also includes a CD ROM diskette of the complete text of the book so the user may print pages including census extraction forms, maps, tables, etc. This paperback will also be found in our book collection. The location will be the reference section, color-coded yellow. Our membership can look forward to the coming conference right here in our own back yard, with the well-known genealogist, Donna Potter Phillips. I encourage you to attend.

The Burlington Public Library is moving forward in the anticipation of an expansion. A focus group has been called and Hazel Rasar along with myself attended. We were able to give input on what our Genealogy Society would like to see in a new facility.

Congratulations to our two society recipients for receiving awards from the Washington State Genealogical Society in Kirkland in June.

Daniel P. Royal

Of Birdsvie, Washington

For outstanding efforts in the preservation of important records of genealogical value to Skagit Valley Genealogical Society and other researchers interested in the families of Washington State.

Dan has distinguished himself in support of the Skagit Valley Genealogical Society by his efforts to develop and maintain a website for the Society and as Society Newsletter Editor. He has made many changes in the presentation and appearance of the website; has uploaded multiple databases of interest and value to the genealogical community, and, in particular, to Skagit County.

In addition to his work on a society website, Daniel has also been active on the Board of Directors and has made improvements in the format and presentation of our society newsletter.

In addition to his Skagit Valley Genealogical Society connections he has been very active in community participation and is a member of the Concrete Historical Museum. In this capacity, he has reprinted "So They Called the Town Concrete" written by Charles Dwelley in May 1980. He is also co-chair of the Society's latest project "Skagit County, Washington and Its People- a Rich History and Heritage".

Dan is proud to be a pioneer descendant of Skagit County when the L.A. Boyd family joined their in-laws the George Savage family in 1882.

Jane E. Russell

Of Mount Vernon, Washington

For exceptional and consistent support of the goals and operation of Skagit Valley Genealogical Society in Skagit County.

Jane has been a member of Skagit Valley Genealogical Society since 1996; At the age of 91 years she has served as Society Treasurer for the past three years, and has distinguished herself in support of the Skagit Valley Genealogical Society by her efforts to disseminate necessary and vital information to the members of this Society. She has been an active and much appreciated member of the Board of Directors for Skagit Valley Genealogical Society.
